

DECLARATION

I,.....

(first name(s) and last name)

declare that the article called

“.....

.....”;

which I submit for publication in the journal Studia Translatorica has not yet been published neither completely nor partially and that it has not been submitted for publication at any other publishing house. My paper does not include any concepts, theses, methods or fragments of texts of other authors without bibliographic references.

I also declare that the manuscript that I have sent to the editors of the journal Studia Translatorica (cross out whichever does not apply):

- was written by myself and I am personally liable for it
- was written together with

(first name last name, affiliation). My co-author’s contribution consisted in

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

.....

.....

(place, date)

(signature)

In case of benefiting from a grant for conducted research, the author submits a separate declaration stating that the paper was written as a part of research project funded by a given scientific research institution, association or any other subject.